1. Introduction

Replace this text with your paper. Papers are submitted electronically through the journal's system, in Microsoft Word and PDF format. They should be from 8 to 12 pages long.

2. Formatting Guidelines

Number sections 1, 2, 3 and subsections 1.1, 1.2, 1.3. Use a capital for the initial letter of every word in section and subsection titles.

2.1 Text

Write paragraphs in Arial 11, single-spaced, with no indent and fully justified. For emphasis on words or key terms, use italics, for example this is an emphasised text. Do not use bold, underlining or another typeface.

2.2 Tables

Tables contain only horizontal rules. Each table needs a short descriptive title above it, column headings that clearly define the data, and all units of measurement. Put any footnotes below the table, and cite every table in the text. Number tables 1, 2, 3 and centre them with their captions. Place them in the text at the appropriate point, not at the end. For example, the margins of the page are set as in Table 1.

Table 1 Setup of margins for the paper

Margin	Cm
Top	2.5
Bottom	2.5
Left	2.5
Right	2.5
Header	1.25
Footer	1

2.3 Figures

Centre figures and images, and place the caption after them. Number them 1, 2, 3, as in Figure 1.

2.4 Bullets

A bullet list looks as follows:

- Bullet item one, some text;
- Bullet item two, some other text.

2.5 Equations

Centre equations and number them at the right, as in equation (1):

$$Y = \alpha + \beta X + \varepsilon \tag{1}$$

2.6 Abbreviations

As far as possible, avoid initials, except for terms in common use. Spell abbreviations out the first time they are mentioned, with the abbreviation in brackets, as in Goce Delcev University (UGD). List them in alphabetical order before the references.

2.7 Citations and References

Use APA style in the text. A parenthetical citation has the surname and the year: (Taylor, 1993) for one author, (Diebold & Li, 2006) for two, and (Clarida et al., 2000) for three or more. A narrative citation has the surname and the year in brackets: Taylor (1993).

In the reference list, references are numbered, listed in APA style and alphabetized by the last name of the first author. Every reference in the text must be in the list, with its URL where available. The list below has a journal article (Veselinova & Petrov, 2025), a book (Hamilton, 1994), a working paper (Svensson, 1994) and a webpage (Journal of Economics, n.d.).

3. Conclusions

Replace this text with your conclusions.
